Tools.
They will be sold at the smallest saving advances on cost. To enable all classes to increase home comforts, to become the makers of many farm tools, to do simple but necessary carpentering, or even repair some portions of a mill or machine, a few well selected tools only are necessary; and with some, on wet days, a long winter night may be pleasantly and profitably employed. They are a branch of education, and a continued exercise will soon learn even a boy to make a candle-stick or dining table. The finest varieties of GARDEN SEEDS are kept here. Directions will be given to uninitiated painters and Varnishers who purchase these articles of the proprietor.
